

Please do not lock out our community on an opportunity to join the world in communicating via DSL. This ruling would be going backwards to when monopolies ruled and dictated to the consumers of America. As you know, America is rapidly going paperless and by making DSL unaffordable to our community would be a great injustice.